Case No. 2:24-cv-04805-MCS-KS

Assigned to:
Hon Mark C. Scarsi
Hon. Mag. Judge Karen L. Stevenson

[PROPOSED] STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

1       1.     A. PURPOSES AND LIMITATIONS

2           Discovery in this action is likely to involve production of confidential, 3 proprietary, or private information for which special protection from public 4 disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecuting this litigation may be 5 warranted. Accordingly, the parties hereby stipulate to and petition the Court to enter 6 the following Stipulated Protective Order. The parties acknowledge that this Order 7 does not confer blanket protections on all disclosures or responses to discovery 8 and that the protection it affords from public disclosure and use extends only to the 9 limited information or items that are entitled to confidential treatment under the 10 applicable legal principles. The parties further acknowledge, as set forth in Section 11 12.3, below, that this Stipulated Protective Order does not entitle them to file 12 confidential information under seal; Civil Local Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures 13 that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 14 permission from the court to file material under seal.

15           B. GOOD CAUSE STATEMENT

16           This action is likely to involve confidential information pertaining to personnel 17 records and other materials subject to privacy protections for which special protection 18 from public disclosure and from use for any purpose other than prosecution of this 19 action is warranted. Limiting disclosure of these documents to the context of this 20 litigation as provided herein will, accordingly, further important law enforcement 21 objectives and interests, including the safety of personnel and the public, as well as the 22 privacy rights of plaintiff, the individual defendants, and third party witnesses. Such 23 confidential materials and information consists of, among other things, materials 24 entitled to privileges and/or protections under the following: the United States 25 Constitution, First Amendment; the California Constitution, Article I, Section 1; 26 California Penal Code §§ 832.5, 832.7, and 832.8; California Evidence Code §§ 1040 27

1 and 1043, et seq.; the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a; Health Insurance
2 Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA), Public Law 104-191, decisional 3 law relating to such provisions; and information otherwise generally unavailable to the 4 public; or which may be privileged or otherwise protected from disclosure under state 5 or federal statutes, court rules, case decisions, or common law. Defendants also 6 contend that such confidential materials and information consists of materials entitled 7 to the Official Information Privilege.

8 Confidential information with respect to the Defendants may include: personnel 9 files; internal investigative files and documents; email and written correspondence 10 records; and policies and procedures that are kept from the public in the ordinary course 11 of business, as well as other items subject to the Official Information Privilege and 12 other privileges. Confidential information with respect to the Plaintiff may include: 13 employment and financial records; email and written correspondence records; and 14 psychological notes, evaluations, and report and treatment plans relating to the 15 treatment, care, and evaluation of the Plaintiff.

16 The parties reserve the right to challenge a designation of confidentiality 17 pursuant to the terms set forth under Paragraph 8 of this Order.

18 Accordingly, to expedite the flow of information; to facilitate the prompt 19 resolution of disputes over confidentiality of discovery materials; to adequately protect 20 information the parties are entitled to keep confidential; to ensure that the parties are 21 permitted to reasonably use such material in preparation for and in conduct of trial; to 22 address their handling at the end of the litigation; and serve the ends of justice, a 23 protective order for such information is justified in this matter. It is the intent of the 24 parties that information will not be designated as confidential for tactical reasons and 25 that nothing be so designated without a good faith belief that it has been maintained in 26 a confidential, non-public manner; and there is good cause why it should not be part of 27 the public record of this case.

2. DEFINITIONS

2.1 Action: Jennie Quan v. County of Los Angeles, Case No. 2:24-cv-04805-MCS-KS

2.2 Challenging Party: a Party or Non-Party that challenges the designation of information or items under this Order.

2.3 “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items: information (regardless of how it is generated, stored or maintained) or tangible things that qualify for protection under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c), and as specified above in the Good Cause Statement.

2.4 Counsel: Outside Counsel of Record and House Counsel (as well as their support staff).

2.5 Designating Party: a Party or Non-Party that designates information or items that it produces in disclosures or in responses to discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.6 Disclosure or Discovery Material: all items or information, regardless of the medium or manner in which it is generated, stored, or maintained (including, among other things, testimony, transcripts, and tangible things), that are produced or generated in disclosures or responses to discovery in this matter.

2.7 Expert: a person with specialized knowledge or experience in a matter pertinent to the litigation who has been retained by a Party or its counsel to serve as an expert witness or as a consultant in this Action.

2.8 House Counsel: attorneys who are employees of a party to this Action. House Counsel does not include Outside Counsel of Record or any other outside counsel.

2.9 Non-Party: any natural person, partnership, corporation, association, or other legal entity not named as a Party to this action.

2.10 Outside Counsel of Record: attorneys who are not employees of a party to this Action but are retained to represent or advise a party to this Action and have appeared in this Action on behalf of that party or are affiliated with a law firm which has appeared on behalf of that party, and includes support staff.

2.11 Party: any party to this Action, including all of its officers, directors, employees, consultants, retained experts, and Outside Counsel of Record (and their support staffs).

2.12 Producing Party: a Party or Non-Party that produces Disclosure or Discovery Material in this Action.

2.13 Professional Vendors: persons or entities that provide litigation support services (e.g., photocopying, videotaping, translating, preparing exhibits or demonstrations, and organizing, storing, or retrieving data in any form or medium) and their employees and subcontractors.

2.14 Protected Material: any Disclosure or Discovery Material that is designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.”

2.15 Receiving Party: a Party that receives Disclosure or Discovery Material from a Producing Party.

3. SCOPE

The protections conferred by this Stipulation and Order cover not only Protected Material (as defined above), but also (1) any information copied or extracted from Protected Material; (2) all copies, excerpts, summaries, or compilations of Protected Material; and (3) any testimony, conversations, or presentations by Parties or their Counsel that might reveal Protected Material.

Any use of Protected Material at trial shall be governed by the orders of the trial judge. This Order does not govern the use of Protected Material at trial.

4. DURATION

1 The confidentiality obligations imposed by this Order shall remain in effect until 2 Final Disposition of this case. “Final Disposition” shall be deemed to be the later of (1) 3 dismissal of all claims and defenses in this Action, with or without prejudice; and (2) 4 final judgment herein after the completion and exhaustion of all appeals, re-hearings, 5 remands, trials, or reviews of this Action, including the time limits for filing any 6 motions or applications for extension of time pursuant to applicable law.

7 5. DESIGNATING PROTECTED MATERIAL

8 5.1 Exercise of Restraint and Care in Designating Material for Protection.

9 Each Party or Non-Party that designates information or items for protection under this 10 Order must take care to limit any such designation to specific material that qualifies 11 under the appropriate standards. The Designating Party must designate for protection 12 only those parts of material, documents, items, or oral or written communications that 13 qualify so that other portions of the material, documents, items, or communications 14 for which protection is not warranted are not swept unjustifiably within the ambit 15 of this Order.

16 Mass, indiscriminate, or routinized designations are prohibited. Designations 17 that are shown to be clearly unjustified or that have been made for an improper purpose 18 (e.g., to unnecessarily encumber the case development process or to impose 19 unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may expose the Designating Party 20 to sanctions.

21 If it comes to a Designating Party’s attention that information or items that it 22 designated for protection do not qualify for protection, that Designating Party must 23 promptly notify all other Parties that it is withdrawing the inapplicable designation.

24 5.2 Manner and Timing of Designations. Except as otherwise provided in this 25 Order (see, e.g., second paragraph of section 5.2(a) below), or as otherwise stipulated 26
27

1 or ordered, Disclosure or Discovery Material that qualifies for protection under this 2 Order must be clearly so designated before the material is disclosed or produced.

3 Designation in conformity with this Order requires:

4 (a) for information in documentary form (e.g., paper or electronic documents, 5 but excluding transcripts of depositions or other pretrial or trial proceedings), that the 6 Producing Party affix at a minimum, the legend “CONFIDENTIAL” (hereinafter 7 “CONFIDENTIAL legend”), to each page that contains protected material. If only a 8 portion or portions of the material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing 9 Party also must clearly identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate 10 markings in the margins).

11 A Party or Non-Party that makes original documents available for inspection 12 need not designate them for protection until after the inspecting Party has indicated 13 which documents it would like copied and produced. During the inspection and before 14 the designation, all of the material made available for inspection shall be deemed 15 “CONFIDENTIAL.” After the inspecting Party has identified the documents 16 it wants copied and produced, the Producing Party must determine which documents, 17 or portions thereof, qualify for protection under this Order. Then, before producing the 18 specified documents, the Producing Party must affix the “CONFIDENTIAL legend” 19 to each page that contains Protected Material. If only a portion or portions of the 20 material on a page qualifies for protection, the Producing Party also must clearly 21 identify the protected portion(s) (e.g., by making appropriate markings in the margins).

22 (b) for testimony given in depositions that the Designating Party identify the 23 Disclosure or Discovery Material on the record, before the close of the deposition all 24 protected testimony.

25 (c) for information produced in some form other than documentary and for 26 any other tangible items, that the Producing Party affix in a prominent place on the 27

1 exterior of the container or containers in which the information is stored the legend
2 “CONFIDENTIAL.” If only a portion or portions of the information warrants 3 protection, the Producing Party, to the extent practicable, shall identify the protected 4 portion(s).

5 5.3 Inadvertent Failures to Designate. If timely corrected, an inadvertent 6 failure to designate qualified information or items does not, standing alone, waive the 7 Designating Party’s right to secure protection under this Order for such material. Upon 8 timely correction of a designation, the Receiving Party must make reasonable efforts 9 to assure that the material is treated in accordance with the provisions of this Order.

10 6. CHALLENGING CONFIDENTIALITY DESIGNATIONS

11 6.1 Timing of Challenges. Any Party or Non-Party may challenge a 12 designation of confidentiality at any time that is consistent with the Court’s Scheduling 13 Order.

14 6.2 Meet and Confer. The Challenging Party shall initiate the dispute 15 resolution process under Local Rule 37.1 et seq.

16 6.3 The burden of persuasion in any such challenge proceeding shall be on 17 the Designating Party. Frivolous challenges, and those made for an improper purpose 18 (e.g., to harass or impose unnecessary expenses and burdens on other parties) may 19 expose the Challenging Party to sanctions. Unless the Designating Party has waived or 20 withdrawn the confidentiality designation, all parties shall continue to afford the 21 material in question the level of protection to which it is entitled under the Producing 22 Party’s designation until the Court rules on the challenge.

23 7. ACCESS TO AND USE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

24 7.1 Basic Principles. A Receiving Party may use Protected Material that is 25 disclosed or produced by another Party or by a Non-Party in connection with this 26 Action only for prosecuting, defending, or attempting to settle this Action. Such 27

1 Protected Material may be disclosed only to the categories of persons and under the 2 conditions described in this Order. When the Action has been terminated, a Receiving 3 Party must comply with the provisions of section 13 below (FINAL DISPOSITION).
4 Protected Material must be stored and maintained by a Receiving Party at a location 5 and in a secure manner that ensures that access is limited to the persons authorized 6 under this Order.

7       7.2 Disclosure of “CONFIDENTIAL” Information or Items. Unless 8 otherwise ordered by the court or permitted in writing by the Designating Party, a 9 Receiving Party may disclose any information or item designated “CONFIDENTIAL” 10 only to:

11       (a) the Receiving Party’s Outside Counsel of Record in this Action, as well 12 as employees of said Outside Counsel of Record to whom it is reasonably necessary to 13 disclose the information for this Action;

14       (b) the officers, directors, and employees (including House Counsel) of the 15 Receiving Party to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action;

16       (c) Experts (as defined in this Order) of the Receiving Party to whom 17 disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have signed the 18 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

19       (d) the court and its personnel;

20       (e) court reporters and their staff;

21       (f) professional jury or trial consultants, mock jurors, and Professional 22 Vendors to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary for this Action and who have 23 signed the “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A);

24       (g) the author or recipient of a document containing the information or a 25 custodian or other person who otherwise possessed or knew the information;

1 (h) during their depositions, witnesses ,and attorneys for witnesses, in the 2 Action to whom disclosure is reasonably necessary provided: (1) the deposing party 3 requests that the witness sign the form attached as Exhibit 1 hereto; and (2) they will 4 not be permitted to keep any confidential information unless they sign the 5 “Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be Bound” (Exhibit A), unless otherwise agreed 6 by the Designating Party or ordered by the court. Pages of transcribed deposition 7 testimony or exhibits to depositions that reveal Protected Material may be separately 8 bound by the court reporter and may not be disclosed to anyone except as permitted 9 under this Stipulated Protective Order; and 10 (i) any mediator or settlement officer, and their supporting personnel, mutually 11 agreed upon by any of the parties engaged in settlement discussions.

12 8. PROTECTED MATERIAL SUBPOENAED OR ORDERED PRODUCED IN 13 OTHER LITIGATION

14 If a Party is served with a subpoena or a court order issued in other litigation that 15 compels disclosure of any information or items designated in this Action as 16 “CONFIDENTIAL,” that Party must:

17 (a) promptly notify in writing the Designating Party. Such notification shall 18 include a copy of the subpoena or court order;

19 (b) promptly notify in writing the party who caused the subpoena or order to 20 issue in the other litigation that some or all of the material covered by the subpoena or 21 order is subject to this Protective Order. Such notification shall include a copy of this 22 Stipulated Protective Order; and 23 (c) cooperate with respect to all reasonable procedures sought to be pursued 24 by the Designating Party whose Protected Material may be affected.

25 If the Designating Party timely seeks a protective order, the Party served with 26 the subpoena or court order shall not produce any information designated in this action 27

1 as “CONFIDENTIAL” before a determination by the court from which the subpoena 2 or order issued, unless the Party has obtained the Designating Party’s permission. The 3 Designating Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection in that court 4 of its confidential material and nothing in these provisions should be construed as 5 authorizing or encouraging a Receiving Party in this Action to disobey a lawful 6 directive from another court.

7 9. A NON-PARTY’S PROTECTED MATERIAL SOUGHT TO BE PRODUCED 8 IN THIS LITIGATION

9 (a) The terms of this Order are applicable to information produced by a Non-10 Party in this Action and designated as “CONFIDENTIAL.” Such information 11 produced by Non-Parties in connection with this litigation is protected by the remedies 12 and relief provided by this Order. Nothing in these provisions should be construed as 13 prohibiting a Non-Party from seeking additional protections.

14 (b) In the event that a Party is required, by a valid discovery request, to 15 produce a Non-Party’s confidential information in its possession, and the Party is 16 subject to an agreement with the Non-Party not to produce the Non-Party’s 17 confidential information, then the Party shall:

18 (1) promptly notify in writing the Requesting Party and the Non-Party 19 that some or all of the information requested is subject to a confidentiality agreement 20 with a Non-Party;

21 (2) promptly provide the Non-Party with a copy of the Stipulated 22 Protective Order in this Action, the relevant discovery request(s), and a reasonably 23 specific description of the information requested; and 24 (3) make the information requested available for inspection by the 25 Non-Party, if requested.

1 (c) If the Non-Party fails to seek a protective order from this court within 14 2 days of receiving the notice and accompanying information, the Receiving Party may 3 produce the Non-Party's confidential information responsive to the discovery request.
4 If the Non-Party timely seeks a protective order, the Receiving Party shall not produce 5 any information in its possession or control that is subject to the confidentiality 6 agreement with the Non-Party before a determination by the court. Absent a court order 7 to the contrary, the Non-Party shall bear the burden and expense of seeking protection 8 in this court of its Protected Material.

9 10. UNAUTHORIZED DISCLOSURE OF PROTECTED MATERIAL

10 If a Receiving Party learns that, by inadvertence or otherwise, it has disclosed 11 Protected Material to any person or in any circumstance not authorized under this 12 Stipulated Protective Order, the Receiving Party must immediately (a) notify in writing 13 the Designating Party of the unauthorized disclosures, (b) use its best efforts to retrieve 14 all unauthorized copies of the Protected Material, (c) inform the person or persons to 15 whom unauthorized disclosures were made of all the terms of this Order, and (d) 16 request such person or persons to execute the "Acknowledgment and Agreement to Be 17 Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

18 11. INADVERTENT PRODUCTION OF PRIVILEGED OR OTHERWISE 19 PROTECTED MATERIAL

20 When a Producing Party gives notice to Receiving Parties that certain 21 inadvertently produced material is subject to a claim of privilege or other protection, 22 the obligations of the Receiving Parties are those set forth in Federal Rule of Civil 23 Procedure 26(b)(5)(B). This provision is not intended to modify whatever procedure 24 may be established in an e-discovery order that provides for production without prior 25 privilege review. Pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502(d) and (e), insofar as the 26 parties reach an agreement on the effect of disclosure of a communication or 27

1 information covered by the attorney-client privilege or work product protection, the 2 parties may incorporate their agreement in the stipulated protective order submitted to 3 the court.

4 12. MISCELLANEOUS

5 12.1 Right to Further Relief. Nothing in this Order abridges the right of any 6 person to seek its modification by the Court in the future.

7 12.2 Right to Assert Other Objections. By stipulating to the entry of this 8 Protective Order no Party waives any right it otherwise would have to object to 9 disclosing or producing any information or item on any ground not addressed in this 10 Stipulated Protective Order. Similarly, no Party waives any right to object on any 11 ground to use in evidence of any of the material covered by this Protective Order.

12 12.3 Filing Protected Material. A Party that seeks to file under seal any 13 Protected Material must comply with Civil Local Rule 79-5. Protected Material may 14 only be filed under seal pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific 15 Protected Material at issue. If a Party's request to file Protected Material under seal is 16 denied by the court, then the Receiving Party may file the information in the public 17 record unless otherwise instructed by the court.

18 The parties further acknowledge that this Order does not entitle them to file 19 confidential information under seal; Local Civil Rule 79-5 sets forth the procedures 20 that must be followed and the standards that will be applied when a party seeks 21 permission from the court to file material under seal.

22 There is a strong presumption that the public has a right of access to judicial 23 proceedings and records in civil cases. In connection with non-dispositive motions, 24 good cause must be shown to support a filing under seal. See Kamakana v. City and 25 County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1176 (9th Cir. 2006); Phillips v. Gen. Motors
26 Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1210-11 (9th Cir. 2002); Makar-Welbon v. Sony Electronics, Inc.,

1 187 F.R.D. 576, 577 (E.D. Wis. 1999), (even stipulated protective orders require good 2 cause showing, and a specific showing of good cause or compelling reasons with 3 proper evidentiary support and legal justification, must be made with respect to 4 material that a party seeks to file under seal). The parties' mere designation of material 5 as "CONFIDENTIAL" does not— without the submission of competent evidence by 6 declaration, establishing that the material sought to be filed under seal qualifies as 7 confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable— constitute good cause. Further, if a 8 party requests sealing related to dispositive motion or trial, then compelling reasons, 9 not only good cause, for the sealing must be shown, and the relief sought shall be 10 narrowly tailored to serve the specific interest to be protected. See Pintos v. Pacific 11 Creditors Ass'n, 605 F.3d 665, 677-79 (9th Cir. 2010).

12 Any document that is not confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable in its 13 entirety will not be filed under seal if the confidential portions can be redacted. If 14 documents can be redacted, then a redacted version for public viewing, omitting only 15 the confidential, privileged, or otherwise protectable portions of the document, shall 16 be filed. Any application that seeks to file documents under seal in their entirety should 17 include an explanation of why redaction is not feasible.

18 13. FINAL DISPOSITION

19 After the final disposition of this Action, as defined in paragraph 4, within 60 20 days of a written request by the Designating Party, each Receiving Party must return 21 all Protected Material to the Producing Party or destroy such material. As used in this 22 subdivision, "all Protected Material" includes all copies, abstracts, compilations, 23 summaries, and any other format reproducing or capturing any of the Protected 24 Material. Whether the Protected Material is returned or destroyed, the Receiving Party 25 must submit a written certification to the Producing Party (and, if not the same person 26 or entity, to the Designating Party) by the 60 day deadline that (1) identifies (by 27

1 category, where appropriate) all the Protected Material that was returned or destroyed 2 and (2) affirms that the Receiving Party has not retained any copies, abstracts, 3 compilations, summaries or any other format reproducing or capturing any of the 4 Protected Material. Notwithstanding this provision, Counsel are entitled to retain an 5 archival copy of all pleadings, motion papers, trial, deposition, and hearing transcripts, 6 legal memoranda, correspondence, deposition and trial exhibits, expert reports, 7 attorney work product, and consultant and expert work product, even if such materials 8 contain Protected Material. Any such archival copies that contain or constitute 9 Protected Material remain subject to this Protective Order as set forth in Section 4 10 (DURATION).

11 14. Any violation of this Order may be punished by any and all appropriate 12 measures including, without limitation, contempt proceedings and/or monetary 13 sanctions.
